APPENDIX 1 - Equality & Diversity Monitoring Form	8

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Jigsaw is committed to providing equal opportunities for all staff and prospective employees and seeks to eliminate unlawful discrimination in all aspects of employment including recruitment, promotion, opportunities for training, pay and benefits, discipline and selection for redundancy.
- 1.2 This policy is intended as a statement of Jigsaw's aims, commitments and responsibilities in relation to equal opportunities in employment. These will be integrated into Jigsaw's HR policies which provide the detail of operational practices and procedures.
- 1.3 This policy is intended to complement the Equality and Diversity Policy which covers Jigsaw's broader commitments in relation to its clients, pupils and the community it serves.

2. Definitions

- 2.1 "Jigsaw" means Jigsaw School, Jigsaw Plus, Jigsaw Trust and Café in the Park.

3. The Law

- 3.1 In accordance with the Equality Act 2010, it is unlawful to discriminate directly or indirectly in recruitment or employment because of age, disability, sex, gender reassignment, pregnancy or maternity, race (which includes colour, nationality and ethnic or national origins), sexual orientation, religion or belief, marital status or because someone is in a civil partnership. These are known as 'protected characteristics'. Discrimination after employment has ended can also be unlawful, for example in relation to the provision of an employment reference.

4. Types of Discrimination

- 4.1 Direct discrimination occurs where a person is treated less favourably than another because of a protected characteristic. An example of direct discrimination would be refusing to employ a woman because she is pregnant. In limited circumstances, employers can directly discriminate against an individual for a reason related to any of the protected characteristics where there is an occupational requirement (such as the need for same-sex staff in changing rooms). The occupational requirement must be crucial to the post and a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim.
- 4.2 Indirect discrimination occurs where a requirement, condition or practice is applied which has a disproportionate and adverse effect on one group with a relevant protected characteristic when compared to other groups. It is, however, capable of justification where the discrimination can be shown to be a 'proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim'. A requirement, for example, for a job applicant to be a graduate is likely to discriminate indirectly against older workers. It will not, however, be unlawful discrimination if the requirement can be objectively justified.
- 4.3 Harassment occurs where there is unwanted conduct, related to one of the protected characteristics, that has the purpose or effect of violating a person's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment. It does not matter whether or not this effect was intended by the person responsible for the conduct.

- 4.4 Associative discrimination occurs where an individual is directly discriminated against or harassed, for associating with another individual who has a protected characteristic. This might occur, for example, where an employee is ostracised by a colleague because the colleague had a gay flatmate.
- 4.5 Perceptive discrimination occurs where an individual is directly discriminated against or harassed based on a perception that he/she has a particular protected characteristic when he/she in fact does not have that protected characteristic. This might occur, for example, where an employee is subjected to homophobic bullying based on a perception that he/she is gay.
- 4.6 Third-party harassment occurs where an employee is harassed by a third party and the harassment is related to a protected characteristic.
- 4.7 Victimisation occurs where an employee is subjected to a detriment, such as being denied a training opportunity or a promotion, because he/she made or supported a complaint or raised a grievance under the Equality Act 2010, or because he/she is suspected of doing so. An employee is not, however, protected from victimisation if he/she acted maliciously or made or supported an untrue complaint.
- 4.8 A failure to make reasonable adjustments may occur where a physical feature or a requirement, condition or practice puts a disabled person at a substantial disadvantage compared with someone who does not have that protected characteristic and the employer has failed to make reasonable adjustments to enable the disabled person to overcome the disadvantage.

5. Responsibilities of Employees

- 5.1 Every employee is expected to assist Jigsaw to meet its obligations in relation to the provision of equal opportunities in employment and to eliminate unlawful discrimination.
- 5.2 Employees can be held personally liable as well as, or instead of, Jigsaw for any act of unlawful discrimination. Employees who commit serious acts of harassment may be guilty of a criminal offence.
- 5.3 Acts of discrimination, harassment, bullying or victimisation against employees or other individuals involved with Jigsaw are disciplinary offences and will be dealt with under Jigsaw's disciplinary procedure and/or Ending Bullying and Harassment Policy. Discrimination, harassment, bullying or victimisation may constitute gross misconduct and could lead to dismissal without notice.
- 5.4 Whilst all employees have a responsibility for supporting Jigsaw's commitments in relation to equality, managers have particular responsibilities because they are in a position to make or influence employment decisions. Managers are therefore expected to be accountable for the provision of equal opportunities through the actions that they take, and to monitor and review practices within their sphere of responsibility.

6. Jigsaw's Commitments

- 6.1 Jigsaw will adhere to its recruitment and selection policy in relation to all new appointments and promotions. In particular, this means that essential criteria on person specifications will be limited to those requirements which are necessary for the effective performance of the job. Candidates for employment or promotion will be assessed objectively against the requirements for the job, taking into account any reasonable adjustments that may be required for candidates with a disability.
- 6.2 All decisions relating to appointment, promotion or access to training will be made based on merit, job needs or other relevant job-related criteria. Jigsaw will foster a workplace culture in which individuals are respected, in which diversity is valued and in which employees are encouraged to report any behaviour which causes them concern.
- 6.3 Where employees seek a variation to a standard working practice, Jigsaw will consider any possible indirectly discriminatory effect of the practice in question and will refuse such requests only where Jigsaw considers it has sound organisational reasons for doing so, unrelated to any protected characteristic. Jigsaw will also make reasonable adjustments to its standard working practices to overcome barriers caused by disability.
- 6.4 Jigsaw will monitor the composition of the existing workforce and of applicants for jobs and, where problems are identified, will consider whether appropriate action can be taken to address these.
- 6.5 Jigsaw will regularly review the need for training in equal opportunities for managers and others involved in recruitment or other decisions relating to employment, as well as reviewing the need for training for existing and new employees, volunteers and other workers engaged at Jigsaw to help them understand their rights and responsibilities.

7. Complaints about Discrimination

- 7.1 Any employee who considers that he/she may have been unlawfully discriminated against may use Jigsaw's grievance procedure to make a complaint. If the complaint involves bullying or harassment, the relevant policy provides further information about how to raise concerns.
- 7.2 Jigsaw will take any complaint seriously and will seek to resolve any grievance that it deems to be well-founded. An employee will not be penalised for raising a grievance providing the concerns are put forward in good faith.
- 7.3 Use of Jigsaw's grievance procedure does not affect an employee's right to make a complaint to an employment tribunal. Complaints to an employment tribunal must normally be made within three months of the act of discrimination complained of.

8. Policy Review

- 8.1 In the interests of ensuring that Jigsaw achieves its aims and duties, the HR Department will include an equality and diversity action plan as part of the department's strategic plan.
- 8.2 Recruitment and employment will be monitored and analysed in respect of protected characteristics.
- 8.3 This policy will be reviewed bi-annually and will be monitored periodically by the HR Department to judge its effectiveness and the findings reported to Governors/Trustees.
- 8.4 This policy was last reviewed in February 2020.
