- Setting up activities and tidying classrooms by putting away materials from previous lessons
- Helping to maintain classroom and school displays

Desirable Qualities:

- A passion for helping others in their education journey
- Good literacy and I.T skills
- A team player, happy to help with whatever needs doing
- Good organisation skills
- The ability to work independently whilst using own initiatives
- A passion to improve the lives of autistic individuals

The Benefits for you:

- Be part of an enthusiastic team
- Develop your knowledge of autism and related learning disabilities
- Gain experience of working in an educational setting to add to your CV
- Make a difference - Help support the work of Jigsaw Trust and help improve the lives of our children and young adults
- Opportunity to participate in various training such as safeguarding

Additional Information:

- Flexibility around volunteering pattern – Preferably 10:00am-14:30pm 3 days a week
- Reasonable out of pocket expenses will be paid

Dunsfold Park, Stovolds Hill, Cranleigh, Surrey, GU6 8TB
